

Editorial changes made to Rule 020, Rules Respecting Gas Utility Pipelines

January 31, 2012

This rule has been updated to adhere to the AUC Style Guide and a standardized template format resulting in minor editorial changes that do not affect the content and meaning of the previously published rule. Broken hyperlinks were updated throughout the rule and Section 3.21 was amended to update the email address as follows:

Previous version:

- a Digital Data Submission (DDS) ID and password from aucsystemservices@auc.ab.ca.

Current version:

- a Digital Data Submission (DDS) ID and password from systemservices@auc.ab.ca.
