2 Exemption from power plant application

A customer who plans to construct or alter and operate a micro-generation generating unit to meet all or a portion of the customer’s total energy consumption, and the unit’s total nameplate capacity does not exceed five megawatts, and who intends to connect the unit to the interconnected electric system may proceed without filing a power plant application under Rule 007: Applications for Power Plants, Substations, Transmission Lines, Industrial System Designations and Hydro Developments to the Commission if the construction or alteration and operation of the unit

- (a) does not directly and adversely affect any person;
- (b) does not have any adverse environmental impact; and
- (c) the unit is constructed or altered and operated, in compliance with Rule 012: Noise Control.

3 Micro-generation notice process

- (1) Prior to filing a micro-generation notice with the owner, a customer must notify and consult with stakeholders, in accordance with Appendix A1- Participant involvement program guidelines of Rule 007, on the plan to construct or alter and operate a micro-generation generating unit.
- (2) A customer who intends to construct or alter and operate a micro-generation generating unit shall complete a micro-generation notice, Form A, and send the completed notice and all supporting documents to the owner.
- (3) Within 14 days of the receipt of a micro-generation notice, the owner shall
 - (a) notify the customer of whether the notice and required documents are complete;
 - (b) if the notice and the required documents are complete,
 - (i) notify the customer that the owner accepts the notice and inform the customer of the estimated connection date of the micro-generation generating unit; or
 - (ii) notify the customer that the owner is disputing that the proposed generating unit qualifies as a micro-generation generating unit.
- (4) If the owner does not dispute that the micro-generation generating unit qualifies as a micro-generation generating unit or in the event that the Commission decides that a disputed unit is a micro-generation generating unit, the customer must provide notice in writing to the customer's retailer or regulated rate provider of the micro-generation generating unit in order to receive credit compensation for micro-generation.

4 Qualification as a micro-generation generating unit

- (1) Within 14 days of receipt of a completed micro-generation notice from a customer, if the owner considers that the customer's proposed micro-generation generating unit will not qualify as a micro-generation generating unit, the owner shall complete a notice of dispute, Form B, and send a copy of the notice of dispute to the customer, at the contact address in the manner indicated in the micro-generation notice.
