

Bulletin 2009-04

February 12, 2009

Rule 007 – Application for Power Plants, Substations, Transmission Lines, and Industrial System Designations

The Alberta Utilities Commission (the Commission) is inviting comments from interested parties respecting draft Rule 007 – Application for Power Plants, Substations, Transmission Lines, and Industrial System Designations. The Commission is considering changes to Rule 007 the proposed changes are reflected in draft Rule 007.

Proposed changes include:

- Modification to Section 3, Power Plant Applications 1 Megawatt (MW) or Greater
- Modification to Section 7, Transmission Line/Substation Applications
- Modification to Appendix A – Participant Involvement Program Requirements

Draft Rule 007, as well as a matrix to be used to provide your comments can be found on the Commission's website by using the following link <http://www.auc.ab.ca/acts-regulations-and-auc-rules/rules/Pages/Rule007.aspx>.

Please provide comments by February 27, 2009. Any questions regarding this consultation should be directed to Rita Chan by telephone at (403) 592-4422, or by email at rita.chan@auc.ab.ca.

(original signed by)

Robert D. Heggie
Chief Executive