Dear Mr. Haber:

No notice of specified penalty issued for self-reported contraventions

1. On March 27, 2020, the Commission issued Bulletin 2020-10: Suspension of specified penalties program for self-reported contraventions, in which the Commission announced that in response to the COVID-19 pandemic, it would suspend the issuance of notices of specified penalty to ensure that utility service providers can focus on helping their customers during the 90-day utility payment deferral program. Specifically, the Commission stated that it would exercise its regulatory discretion by putting in place the following measures:

- a. No new notices of specified penalty for any contraventions that arose prior to March 18, 2020, will be issued during the 90-day deferral period from March 18 to June 18, 2020. Any notices of specified penalty issued prior to March 18, 2020, will continue in effect.
- b. After June 18, 2020, for any self-reported contraventions that arose prior to March 18, 2020, the Commission will only consider issuing notices of specified penalty for contraventions that resulted in disconnections of a customer's site in error if that customer's site was disconnected for a period in excess of 24 hours. A notice of specified penalty will not be issued for any other self-reported contraventions.

2. On June 21, and June 25, 2019, EPCOR Energy Alberta GP Inc. (EPCOR) self-disclosed several events to the Alberta Utilities Commission under AUC Rule 032: Specified Penalties for Contravention of AUC Rules, related to possible contraventions of Subsection 3.4.1(2) of AUC Rule 003: Service Standards for Energy Service Providers.

3. EPCOR self-disclosed that it had issued incorrect bills to several of its customers. However, only one incorrect bill was issued to each customer in all but two instances, and the resulting harm to each customer was minimal. Because these events were self-disclosed before March 18, 2020 and did not result in a disconnection, the Commission will not issue notices of specified penalty for the contraventions related to the customers listed below:

- a. [REDACTED]
- b. [REDACTED]
- c. [REDACTED]
