Description of conduct that resulted in the contravention	AUC Rule 003: Service Standards for Energy Service Providers, Subsection 3.4.1(3) states: An ESP must not request the disconnection of a customer unless (a) the customer requests the disconnection; (b) the customer's account is in arrears and the disconnection will occur within the permissible disconnection period; (c) the customer is receiving electricity or gas service but fails to provide information or provides incorrect information for billing purposes and the disconnection will occur within the permissible disconnection period; or (d) the premises or property served by a site reasonably appears to be vacant or unoccupied. Direct Energy Regulated Services (DERS) self-disclosed that it had requested the disconnection of a customer in error. DERS reported that it had enrolled a customer at a wrong site in error. The previous customer at that site was in arrears and as a result of the wrongful enrollment, the new customer at that site was disconnected in error on May 15, 2019. The site was re-energized on May 16, 2019.
Facts relied upon	DERS self-disclosed that it had contravened AUC Rule 003, Subsection 3.4.1(3). DERS stated that it had paid the customer a $150 service guarantee as required by Subsection 3.4.2(1) of AUC Rule 003. The Commission is satisfied that a contravention has occurred.
Adjustments made to specified penalty Payment of service guarantee: Yes Self-disclosed: Yes	Tenth contravention of AUC Rule 003, Subsection 3.4.1(3) within 120 days Payment of service guarantee to customer *Reduction for voluntary disclosure The final adjusted penalty amount *The Commission has further reduced the penalty by 50 per cent because the contravention was voluntarily disclosed and the actions taken by the entity subsequent to its becoming aware of the contravention.	$2,500 ($150) ($1,175) <hr style="width: 100px; margin-left: auto; margin-right: 0;"/> $1,175
